

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

KENNETH BEAMAN,

Defendant.

NO. CR22-100 JHC

AMENDED ORDER GRANTING
TEMPORARY RELEASE

This Court, having considered the defendant's Second Motion for Temporary Release, and the information provided by the parties at the hearing held on June 13, 2023, FINDS that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), there is a compelling reason for Mr. Beaman to be temporarily released from custody to obtain necessary medical care that is not being provided at the Federal Detention Center.

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that Mr. Beaman shall be temporarily released from the Federal Detention Center for a period beginning on June 14, 2023. Mr. Beaman shall return to custody at the Federal Detention Center no later than 10:00 a.m. on June 23, 2023.

During the period of temporary release, Mr. Beaman shall be subject to the following conditions:

- He must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- He must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- He must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

- 1 • He must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where he is 2 authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the 3 probation officer.
- 4 • He must answer truthfully the questions asked by probation officers.
- 5 • He must maintain residence as directed and not change residence without 6 prior approval of the Probation Office or as directed by the Probation
7 Office.
- 8 • He must not communicate or interact with someone known to engage in 9 criminal activity. If he knows someone has been convicted of a felony, he 10 must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first 11 getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 12 • If he is arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, he must notify 13 the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 14 • He must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, 15 destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed,
16 or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death
17 to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 18 • He must submit to drug and alcohol testing, to include urinalysis,
19 breathalyzer, or hand-held testing devices, as directed by Pretrial Services.
20 He shall not use, consume, or possess alcohol, any product containing 21 alcohol, or other intoxicants, including medication, unless prescribed by a
22 physician and under the direction of Pretrial Services.
- 23 • The defendant shall participate in the location monitoring program with 24 Active Global Positioning Satellite technology. The defendant is restricted
25 to his residence at all times except for employment, religious services,
26 medical, legal reasons, or as otherwise approved by the location
27 monitoring specialist. The defendant shall abide by all program requirements, and must contribute towards the costs of the services, to the extent financially able, as determined by the location monitoring specialist.
28

The location monitoring specialist will coordinate the defendant's release with the U.S. Marshals.

- He must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DATED this 20th day of June, 2023.
